Summary

Businesses had more moderate expectations for economic growth in Ukraine. Expectations of development prospects remained healthy. Respondents reported stronger expectations for weaker inflation and softer hryvnia depreciation¹.

In the next 12 months, respondents expect that:

- the output of Ukrainian goods and services will grow moderately, the balance of responses being 10.4%, down from 21.9% in Q4 2019
- business activity will be moderate the business outlook index (BOI) was 110.5%, down from 112.0% in Q4 2019. Business activity continued to be robust, propelled by companies' optimistic forecasts for total sales growth, and strong expectations for their own financial and economic standings and investment in machinery, equipment and tools. That said, the growth in the BOI has been decelerating for four quarters running, in line with changes in industrial output
- lower inflation consumer prices were expected to rise by 5.1% compared to 7.0% in Q4
- the hryvnia will continue to depreciate at a slower pace the UAH/USD exchange rate will be on average UAH 26.01 per USD 1 (compared to UAH 27.43 per USD 1 in Q4).

A significant percentage of respondents said they would have to borrow money in the near future. Respondents also continued to report less tight lending conditions. The percentage of respondents that plan to take out loans was on the rise. Businesses that intend to take out loans as ever prefer hryvnia loans.

The main impediments to company development were insufficient demand and qualified staff shortages.

¹This survey was carried out before quarantine measures were introduced (from 4 February through 4 March).

Main Terms and Definitions

- A balance of expectations is the difference between the percentages of respondents' replies "grew/improved/good" and "decreased/worsened/bad".
- The business outlook index (BOI) is an aggregate indicator that shows expectations of company development over the next 12 months. It is calculated as the arithmetic mean of the balances of responses regarding financial and economic standings, total sales of own products, investment spending on construction, investment spending on machinery, equipment and tools, and staff numbers. An index above 100 means that positive economic sentiment prevails in society, while an index below 100 indicates the prevalence of negative economic sentiment.
- A quartile is the value of the BOI where an ordered sample is divided into four equal-sized subgroups.
- A median is the value of the BOI in the middle of an ordered sampled where the sample is divided into two equal-sized subgroups.
- Short names for the main economic activities (according to the 2010 Classification of Main Economic Activities (ΚΒΕД – 2010)) that are used in the survey:
