

International events on exchange of experience to be held under the NBU's initiative in 2024

No.	Period and format of event	Event name	Event details
2024
1	20–21 June Kyiv, Ukraine, hybrid format	The 8th Annual Research Conference of the National Bank of Ukraine and Narodowy Bank Polski Navigating the Changing Landscape: Central Banks in a New Normal	Objective: involvement of representatives of central banks, the academic community, international financial institutions, and well-known research centers into discussion on topical issues related to central bank activities in a new normal. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • post-war recovery through European integration • sanctions: enforcement and compliance • central banking in a new normal • role of supply and demand shocks • income, wealth, and inflation inequality • labor market structural changes • transition to sustainable central bank practices • supply chain disruptions • new dimensions of policy: regional and urban revitalization • role of new technologies in rebuilding financial markets. Participants: representatives of central banks, IFIs, academic community, other analytical and research centers. Around 200–400 participants
2	September, virtual	International Roundtable Procurement Digitalization as Means of Central Banks Financial Defense	Objective: experience sharing and exchange of the practices on procurement processes with representatives of foreign central banks and regulators. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • experience of procurement digitalization • recent international developments • applying AI instruments. Participants: representatives of foreign central banks and regulators

3	October, Kyiv, Ukraine, hybrid format	Annual International Roundtable Strategic Development and Change Management of Financial Sector Regulators	Objective: sharing and spreading the practices of strategic development, long-term and short-term planning, implementation of central bank strategies. Automation of strategic development processes and change management. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • role of a central bank and financial sector regulators in ensuring the country's sustainable development • effective cooperation of a central bank and financial sector regulators; cooperation between public authorities to attain common goals • drafting a strategic plan (techniques, best practices); examples of successful central bank transformations • strategy implementation; factors of influence on the central bank strategy automation of strategic planning processes. Participants: representatives of foreign central banks and financial sector regulators, participants of the previous roundtables, and international experts on strategic planning (up to 100 participants)
4	November, Kyiv, Ukraine, hybrid format	Workshop Monetary Policy in Developing Countries	Objective: discussion with the international professional community of the topical monetary policy issues and challenges that developing countries are facing today. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • peculiarities and challenges for monetary policy in developing countries. Participants: representatives of central banks, IFIs, academic community, other analytical and research centers.
5	December, Kyiv, Ukraine	International Roundtable International Relations of Central Banks in New Geopolitical Reality	Objective: the second international roundtable will become a traditional expert platform for discussing relevant issues of central banks building international ties to address current challenges. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • internal and external coordination and interaction • practical aspects of building and developing international relations at a modern central bank • new tools, areas, and policies of international relations. Participants: representatives of foreign central banks and regulators.