This Law shall govern relations that arise in the course of establishment, registration, operation, reorganization and liquidation of banks.

The provisions of the present Law and NBU regulations shall be applicable to both banks and foreign bank branches.

Provisions of the present Law shall be applicable to the representative offices of foreign banks operating in the territory of Ukraine, unless otherwise established by the effective international treaties (agreements) ratified by the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine, as well as to branches of Ukrainian banks abroad and to the bank’s related parties specified in Article 52 of the present Law.

Appropriate provisions of the present Law shall also be applicable to some liabilities and responsibilities of other persons, whose activity is connected with operation of banks.

The relations that arise as a result of application of the provisional administration and liquidation of an issuer of the mortgage-backed securities shall be regulated by the present Law if that is not contrary to the Law of Ukraine On Mortgage-Backed Securities.

Article 4. Banking System of Ukraine

The banking system of Ukraine consists of the National Bank of Ukraine (NBU) and other banks, as well as the branches of foreign banks, which have been established and operate in the territory of Ukraine in compliance with the present Law provisions and those of other laws of Ukraine.

Each bank may independently determine areas of its activity and specialization by types of operations and services.

The NBU may determine types of the specialized banks and a procedure of obtainment of the specialized bank status by a bank.

The NBU shall regulate activities of the specialized banks through the economic ratios and regulations that support the operations performed by these banks.

The NBU uses the following criteria to define SIBs: size of a bank, financial interconnectedness and lines of activity.

The NBU shall exercise its regulatory and supervisory activities pursuant to the provisions of the Constitution of Ukraine, the present Law, the Law of Ukraine On the National Bank of Ukraine, other legislative acts and its own regulations. The NBU sets the peculiarities of regulations and supervision of a SIB and a bank that has the status of the Settlement Center for the financial markets contracts taking into account the specifics of their activities.
Article 5. Economic Independence of Banks

Banks shall have the right to independently hold, use and manage the property they own.

The State shall not be held responsible for commitments of the banks, and banks shall not be held responsible for commitments of the State, unless otherwise provided for by law or an agreement.

The NBU shall not be held responsible for commitments of the banks, and banks shall not be held responsible for commitments of the NBU, unless otherwise provided by law or an agreement.

Public authorities and local government bodies shall not be allowed to influence in any way the management or employees of banks during the exercise of official duties by them, or to interfere with the bank activities, except when expressly specified by law.

The damage inflicted on a bank as a result of such interference shall be subject to compensation pursuant to the procedures specified by law.

Article 6. Organizational and Legal Form of the Bank

In Ukraine, banks shall be created in the form of a joint stock company or a cooperative bank.

The legal status, establishment procedures, activities, reorganization and liquidation of banks shall be determined by the present Law and the Law of Ukraine On Households Deposit Guarantee System.

Laws and regulations on joint stock companies apply to the banks taking into account the provisions hereof. In case of any conflict between the provisions of this Law and the laws and regulations on joint stock companies, the provisions of this Law shall prevail.

Article 7. State-Owned Banks

A state-owned bank (SOB) is a bank in which the State owns 100% of the authorized capital. A SOB can exist solely in the form of a joint stock company.

Provisions of this Law apply to SOBs, taking into account particularities introduced by this Article. Provisions of other laws of Ukraine apply to SOBs to the extent they do not contradict this Article.

The State is the only shareholder of a SOB. The Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine shall exercise management of equity rights of the State in the SOB. The body exercising management of equity rights of the State in the SOB shall also perform the functions of the highest management body of the SOB (hereinafter - the highest body).

The supervisory board and board shall be the other management bodies of the SOB.

Decisions of the highest body shall be documented through acts of the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine whose drafts shall be developed and submitted to the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine by the central executive authority assigned to shape the state financial policy, and they are not subject to approval by other stakeholder agencies.

The SOB’s charter shall be approved by the highest body and meet the requirements of Ukrainian laws, taking into account specifics stipulated by this Law and NBU regulations.

The highest body shall have the exclusive authority to take decisions on the following matters:
1) determination of the SOB’s core (strategic) activities and approval of reports on the implementation thereof

2) approval of the SOB’s strategy approved by the supervisory board

3) introduction of amendments to the SOB’s charter

4) increase or decrease in the SOB’s authorized capital

5) appointment and termination of powers of the members of the supervisory board as prescribed in this Article

6) approval of terms of civil law contracts to be concluded with the members of the supervisory board, choosing a person authorized to sign civil law contracts with the members of the supervisory board

7) setting the amount of remuneration for the members of the supervisory board, including fringe benefits

8) approval of the regulation on the remuneration for the members of the supervisory board, requirements to which shall be imposed by the NBU

9) approval of the report on the remuneration for the members of the supervisory board, requirements to which shall be imposed by the NBU

10) approval of the SOB’s annual report

11) approval of follow-up measures based on the report of the supervisory board, including with respect to implementing the SOB development strategy (the SOB strategy)

12) cover of losses and distribution of profit

13) approval of annual dividends amount

14) approval of the Regulation on the SOB’s supervisory board

15) change in the type of a joint stock company as a legal form of the SOB

16) issuance of shares, split or consolidation of shares

17) repurchase of shares of own issue by the SOB

18) cancellation or sales of the SOB’s repurchased shares

19) SOB reorganization, setting up the commission on SOB reorganization

20) winding up the SOB, setting up the commission on dissolution (the liquidation commission, liquidator) of the SOB, approval of the liquidation balance sheet

21) setting criteria to select an external auditor for the SOB

22) giving consent to a sizable transaction upon the submission by the supervisory board
23) giving consent to a transaction whose conducting is subject to interest, as specified by the Law of Ukraine On Joint Stock Companies, with provision of Article 52 of this Law taken into account.

The powers to solve the issues, which are exclusively within the competence of the highest body, shall not be delegated to other SOB’s management bodies. The highest body shall not have the right to make decisions on the SOB’s activities, which are not within its exclusive competence. The highest body shall not perform the day-to-day management of the SOB.

The highest body shall have the right to obtain any information about the SOB’s financial and economic activities, which is needed to exercise its powers, taking into account the provisions of this Law on bank secrecy.

The supervisory board is a joint SOB’s managing body, which, within its competence, manages the SOB and controls and regulates activities of the SOB’s executive body with the aim of implementing the SOB’s strategy. The supervisory board, serving the SOB interests pursuant to this Law, shall protect the rights of depositors, creditors, and the state as a shareholder.

The supervisory board shall consist of nine members, six whereof shall be independent and three remaining shall represent the state.

The members of the supervisory board shall meet the requirements to bank’s top managers, which are specified in Article 42 herein. Appointment of a person to the position of a member of the SOB’s supervisory board shall be prohibited, if it can lead to a conflict of interest. A person whose criminal records were not expunged or conviction was not quashed as prescribed by the law, and/or a person that underwent disciplinary sanctions for committing offenses related to corruption shall not be a member of the supervisory board.

A person shall not be the member of the SOB’s supervisory board in the following cases:

1) The person is or, within the last five years, was a top manager of this SOB (except an independent member of the supervisory board) and/or its branch, representative office, and/or other standalone unit or legal entity in which the SOB has a qualifying holding.

2) The person is or, within the last five years, was an employee of the SOB and/or its branch, representative office, and/or other standalone unit or legal entity, in which this SOB has a qualifying holding.

3) The person is a related party of the SOB.

4) Power of Attorney from the foreign bank to the representative office Head for exercising representative functions;

5) a copy of the payment document on transfer of the fee for accreditation of the foreign bank’s representative office as charged by the NBU.

The NBU may refuse to provide a foreign bank’s representative office with accreditation in case of violations of the registration procedure, non-conformity of the submitted documents with the laws of Ukraine or with NBU regulations, untrue information submitted or exceeded authority in relation to the spheres of activities of the representative office.

The NBU shall make a decision on the foreign bank’s representative office accreditation or refusal thereof within one month from submittal of all required documents.

The rejection shall be delivered in writing with indication of the corresponding reasons.

The NBU is entitled to annul the accreditation of any foreign bank’s representative office by means of exclusion of the corresponding entry in the State Register of Banks as per the procedure established by the NBU.

The foreign bank shall inform the NBU of any amendments to the documents or information mentioned in paragraphs 4–6, 14–17 of the sixth part and paragraphs 3 and 4 of the fourteenth part of this Article. The amendments shall be supported by appropriate documents.

The official documents submitted to the NBU shall have been duly legalized pursuant to the established procedure, unless otherwise is provided by the effective international agreements, ratified by the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine, and shall be accompanied with a notarized translation into Ukrainian.

Article 25. Subsidiary Banks, Branches and Representative Offices of a Ukrainian Bank in the Territory of Other Countries

Ukrainian banks are entitled to establish (also through acquisition) subsidiary banks, branches and representative offices in the territory of other countries on the basis of the NBU permit. The same requirements are set forth for opening subsidiary banks, branches and representative offices of Ukrainian banks in the territory of other countries as those for opening branches and representative offices of the banks in the territory of Ukraine, provided the NBU has granted the permit for investments abroad in connection with the establishment of a branch or a representative office of the bank in the territory of other country.

In order to establish a subsidiary bank, branch or representative office of a Ukrainian bank abroad, the bank shall provide the NBU with a business plan and economic justification for establishing the subsidiary bank, branch or representative office of the bank abroad.

The NBU is entitled to deny the bank the permit to establish a subsidiary bank, branch or representative office of the bank in the territory of other country, in case the bank has not met the requirements of the NBU regulations regarding the establishment of subsidiaries, branches or representative offices of banks in Ukraine as well as in case the banking supervision in the country in question does not comply with the Core Principles of Banking Supervision of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision.

The subsidiary bank, branch or representative office of a Ukrainian bank in the territory of other country shall undergo registration in conformity with the legislation requirements of the respective country.

Within one month, the bank shall inform the NBU of opening of a subsidiary bank, branch or representative office in the territory of other country and provide copies of the appropriate documents on their registration.

Ukrainian banks shall ensure submittal of reports and data by the subsidiary or branch established in the territory of other countries to the parent bank and NBU in accordance with the requirements of the latter regarding the consolidated supervision.

The NBU is entitled to require any Ukrainian bank to decrease the participation in its subsidiary bank capital, to close a subsidiary bank or branch established in the territory of other countries, in case the NBU does not receive the data necessary to carry out the consolidated supervision or if the supervision over the subsidiary banks or branches established in the territory of other countries by a Ukrainian bank is inefficient, in particular it does not comply with the Core Principles for Effective Banking Supervision of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision.

Chapter 5. REORGANIZATION OF A BANK

Article 26. Ways of Bank Reorganization

A bank may be reorganized by a decision of its owners.

The reorganization may be carried out by a merger, takeover, splitting, separation and transformation.

In the case of bank reorganization through transformation the provisions of law on legal entity dissolution shall not apply. In the course of the bank reorganization through transformation the creditors are not entitled to require from the bank to terminate or fulfill before the appointed time any obligation.

Article 27. Conditions for Bank Reorganization

The reorganization upon the decision of bank owners shall be carried out in accordance with the laws of Ukraine on companies (business partnerships) provided the prior permit has been obtained from the NBU and the bank reorganization plan has been approved by the NBU.
Should a bank be reorganized through transformation upon decision of the bank owners, the bank reorganization plan is not required.

The NBU shall determine the list of documents to be submitted in order to obtain the permit for reorganization and approval of the bank reorganization plan.

The NBU shall not give the permit for the bank reorganization in the event there are sufficient grounds to believe that the reorganization poses a threat to the interests of depositors and other creditors, and the bank, established as a result of the reorganization, and/or the bank remaining a legal entity as a result of takeover by or separation from it is likely to fail to meet the requirements regarding economic ratios, bank registration and licensing procedure.

The NBU shall grant the permit for the reorganization of the bank or issue a rejection within one month from the moment the application of the bank for reorganization is received.

Article 28. Decision on Reorganization

The decision on reorganization of a bank, with the exception of transformation, shall include the following data on:

1) an agreement on reorganization in case of a merger or takeover;
2) the appointment of commission members to carry out the reorganization;
3) the appointment of members of the Revision Commission to take an inventory and review valuables in the books of the bank (banks);
4) the appointment of the auditor;
5) the reorganization schedule;
6) the Board composition after the reorganization.

The reorganization shall begin after the NBU approves the reorganization plan, which, apart from all other necessary measures, shall provide for submitting to the NBU the appropriate documents necessary for approval of the new bank’s charter or amendments to the charter of the existing bank.

Article 29. Agreement on Merger or Takeover

The agreement on merger or takeover shall be concluded in writing by the banks being reorganized through the merger or takeover.

The agreement on merger or takeover shall contain provisions that regulate the issues set forth in Article 28 of the present Law.

The agreement on merger or takeover shall enter into force the moment it has been approved by a 2/3 majority of shareholders (participants) at the general meeting of each of the banks.
The bank regulatory capital shall include:

1) core capital;

2) additional capital.

The core capital of any bank shall include the authorized capital and disclosed reserves that are formed or increased at the expense of the retained profit, share premiums and additional contributions of shareholders to the capital, the general reserve fund created against general or unspecified business risk, except for the losses in the current year and intangible assets. The disclosed reserves also include other funds of the same quality, which shall correspond to the following criteria:

1) payments to the funds shall be made from the profits after taxation or from profits before taxation, adjusted for all potential tax obligations;

2) the funds and cash inflow and outflow shall be separately disclosed in the published statements of the bank;

3) the bank shall have the funds available to cover losses to be instantly used in unlimited amounts if losses are incurred;

4) the losses may not be covered directly from the funds. They shall be entered to the profit and loss account.

If approved by the NBU, the additional capital may include:

1) undisclosed reserves (apart from the fact that such reserves are not shown in the published balance sheet of the bank, they shall be of the same quality and nature as the disclosed capital reserve);

2) revaluation reserves (fixed assets and unrealized value of the “hidden” revaluation reserves resulting from long-term holding of the securities recorded in the balance sheet at the historical cost of their acquisition);

3) hybrid (debt/capital) capital instruments that shall meet the following criteria:

they are unsecured, subordinated and fully paid;

they may not be repaid on the initiative of the owner;

they may freely participate in the cover of losses without demanding that the bank terminates trading transactions;

they allow delay in servicing obligations as to the interest payments in case the level of profitability does not allow performing such payments;

4) subordinated debt (ordinary unsecured by the bank debt capital instruments, which under contract conditions may not be withdrawn from the bank earlier than after a 5 year period, and in case of bankruptcy or liquidation shall be returned to investors after reimbursement of claims of all other creditors). In such a case, the amount of subordinated debt included into capital shall annually decrease by 20% of its initial value within the last 5 years of the contract.

In case the subordinated debt has been in a foreign currency of the first group of the Foreign Currency Classifier of the NBU, it shall be included in calculation of capital at the official exchange rate of the NBU as at the reporting date.

The NBU has the right to determine, in the form of its resolutions, other components of the regulatory capital as well as conditions and the procedure for its formation.

The additional capital may not exceed 100% of the core capital.

Article 31. Size of the Authorized Capital at the Moment of State Registration of the Legal Entity Intending to Engage in Banking

The minimum size of the authorized capital at the moment of state registration of the legal entity intending to engage in banking shall not be less than UAH 500 million.

The NBU shall have the right to establish for some legal entities intending to engage themselves in banking, depending on their specialization, a differentiated minimum size of the authorized capital at the moment of their state registration. This size shall not be less than the amount specified in this Article.

Article 32. Procedure for Bank’s Authorized Capital Formation and Increase

The authorized capital of a bank shall be formed in accordance with the requirements of the present Law, the legislation of Ukraine and foundation documents of the bank.

The formation of the authorized capital and bank capitalization may be carried out through money contributions, except the cases envisaged by the Law of Ukraine On the State Budget of Ukraine for the relevant year, Law of Ukraine On Priority Measures to Avoid Negative Consequences of the Financial Crisis and Amendments to Certain Laws of Ukraine, and Law of Ukraine On Simplifying Reorganization and Capitalization Procedures for Banks during its effect period. The money contributions for the formation and increase of the authorized capital of a bank by Ukrainian residents shall be made in hryvnias, whereas non-residents may pay the contributions in a foreign fully convertible currency or in hryvnias.

The authorized capital of a bank shall not be formed from unverified sources.

The legal entity intending to engage itself in banking, before receipt of the banking license and entry of the data on it into the State Register of Banks, is entitled to spend the funds contributed by the founders thereof in order to form the authorized capital thereof only with the purpose of preparing itself for performing the banking operations.

A bank shall not have the right to reduce the size of the regulatory capital lower than the established minimum without approval of the NBU. This requirement shall not be applied to a newly established bank during one year from the date of receipt of the banking license by the bank in question.

It is prohibited to use budget funds for the bank authorized capital formation if these funds are earmarked for other purposes.

In the case of decrease of total amount of deposits in the banking system by five or more percent during the term up to six calendar months, the NBU by its decision introduces (cancels) simplified procedure for registration of the issue of shares, the NBU approval of the amendments to the bank charter, state registration of the amendments to the bank charter. According to the simplified procedure:

- date of submittal of the decision on bank’s capitalization, amendments to the bank’s charter to the National Securities and Stock Market Commission shall be deemed the date of issue registration;

- date of submittal of amendments to the bank’s charter for approval to the NBU and for registration to the State Registrar shall be deemed the date of their approval by the NBU and the date of registration by the State Registrar respectively;

- date of submittal of the documents for registration of share issue of the bank shall be deemed the date of issue registration.

The date of submittal of respective documents to the NBU, State Registrar and National Securities and Stock Market Commission shall be determined in accordance with an incoming stamp of the respective public authority (registration index).

- Antimonopoly Committee of Ukraine, in cases specified in part seventh of the Article, shall issue a conclusion and/or permit for concentration within five business days since the date of submittal of the respective documents by the bank.

Article 33. Bank Shares and Stakes

Banks may issue their own shares in compliance with the Ukrainian legislation on companies (economic partnerships) as well as securities with taking into account the peculiarities defined by the present Law.

Banks are not allowed to issue the shares to bearer.

Existence of bank losses is not an obstacle for an increase of the bank’s authorized capital.

Banks shall have the right to purchase their own shares or stakes with further written notification to the NBU of the deals made, which shall be sent within 5 days after the date of the deal. The banks may not purchase their own shares if this can lead to a decrease in the regulatory capital to a level lower than the required minimum.

The bank shall, 15 calendar days prior to the deal, notify the NBU in writing of its intention to acquire 10 and more percent of own shares or stock of the total issue. The NBU shall have the right to prohibit such purchase of bank’s own shares or stock if this can result in a deterioration of the bank’s financial standing.

The bank may offer its shares to the first owners directly or through underwriters. The Bank shall be permitted to act as an intermediary for the purchase and sale of its own shares or stakes.

Article 34. Qualifying Holding

A legal entity or an individual intending to acquire a qualifying holding in a bank or to increase it so that this entity could, directly and/or indirectly, alone or jointly with other entities, hold 10, 25, 50, 75 or more percent of the bank’s authorized capital or voting shares in the bank’s authorized capital and/or could influence the bank’s management or activities in a significant manner, regardless of whether this entity is the formal owner of the bank, shall be required to notify both the bank in question and the NBU of its intentions three months prior to the acquisition or increase of the qualifying holding (except for strategic investors applying for the competition according to the Law...
The entities listed in Part 1 of the Article shall be required to furnish the NBU, along with the notification, with a complete set of the documents specified by this Law and NBU regulations.

The NBU shall consider the documents specified in the Article within three months from the day of receipt of the complete set of the appropriate documents (except for strategic investors applying for the competition according to the Law of Ukraine On Specifics of Sales of Stakes Owned by the State in the Authorized Capital of Banks the State Participated in). If the bank mentioned in the first part of this Article holds a license as a stock market professional, the NBU shall inform the National Securities and Stock Market Commission about the mentioned entities intending to acquire or increase a qualifying holding in such bank.

The NBU shall communicate (send) decisions to prohibit the relevant entity from acquiring or increasing the qualifying holding in a bank and the rationale behind the prohibition.

In the event that the NBU has not informed the relevant entity of its decision to prohibit it from acquiring or increasing the qualifying holding in a bank within the time limit applicable under part 3 of the Article, the acquisition or increase shall be deemed approved.

The entities listed in Part 1 of the Article shall be required to notify the bank of the approval given by the NBU to acquire or increase the qualifying holding in the bank and provide information about their ownership structure and the percentage of qualifying holding in the bank.

A legal entity or individual intending to transfer its qualifying holding in a bank to any other entity or individual or to decrease the holding so that its percentage in the bank’s authorized capital or its voting right would be lower than the levels envisaged in Part 1 of the Article, or to transfer control of the bank to another entity shall be required to notify thereof, as applicable, both the bank and the NBU.

A legal entity intending to acquire or increase the qualifying holding in a bank shall be required to furnish, as applicable, both the bank and the NBU with:

1) the documents specified by the NBU which confirm that the legal entity intending to increase its qualifying holding in a bank has a qualifying holding in the bank;

2) the documents specified by the NBU to establish:

   the business reputation of the legal entity, its executive board and supervisory council members, entities that have a qualifying holding and all entities through which indirect ownership and/or control of the qualifying holding in the bank are likely to be executed;

   the financial standing of the said entity;

   whether the entity has enough own funds to make the intended contribution to the bank’s authorized capital, sources of such funds;

3) copies of the documents specified by the NBU required to verify the identity of the legal entity and all other entities through which indirect ownership and/or control of the qualifying holding in the bank are likely to be executed;

4) information about its pattern of ownership according to the requirements of the NBU;
5) a conclusion made by the Antimonopoly Committee of Ukraine, as provided by the applicable Ukrainian laws.

A foreign legal entity intending to acquire or increase the qualifying holding in a bank shall be required to additionally furnish the NBU with the following documents:

1) a copy of the decision made by the authorized management body of the foreign legal entity in relation to the holding in a Ukrainian bank;

2) a written permit to have a holding in a Ukrainian bank granted to the foreign legal entity by the authorized control agency in the country where the head office of the foreign legal entity has been registered, if the laws in effect in that country require that such a permit be obtained, or written assurance of the said foreign legal entity that the laws in effect in that country do not require that such a permit be obtained;

3) an excerpt from the trade, banking or court registry or any other official document which confirms the registration of the foreign legal entity in the country where its head office has been registered;

4) a copy of the auditor’s report produced by a foreign auditor confirmed by a Ukrainian audit firm on the financial standing of the foreign legal entity as of the end of the last complete calendar year.

An individual intending to acquire or increase the qualifying holding in a bank shall be required to furnish, as applicable, both the bank and the NBU with:

1) the documents, specified by the NBU, which confirm that the individual intending to increase his/her qualifying holding in a bank has a qualifying holding in the bank;

2) the documents, specified by the NBU, to establish the business reputation of the individual and all persons through which indirect ownership of the qualifying holding in the bank is likely to be exercised;

3) the documents, specified by the NBU, to establish the property status of the individual and all persons through which indirect ownership of the qualifying holding in the bank is likely to be exercised;

3) the documents, specified by the NBU, to establish the sources of the funds used by an individual to acquire or increase the qualifying holding in a bank;

4) copies of the documents required to verify the identity of the individual and all other persons through which indirect ownership and/or control of the qualifying holding in the bank are likely to be exercised;

5) information to be provided under the form developed by the NBU on the associated persons of the individual;

6) the information to be provided under the form developed by the NBU on the legal entities where the individual in question is a manager and/or controller.

A foreign individual intending to acquire or increase the qualifying holding in a bank shall additionally furnish the NBU with a written permit to have a holding in a Ukrainian bank granted by the authorized control agency in the country where the person has permanent residence, if the laws in effect in that country require that such a permit be obtained, or written assurance that the laws in effect in that country do not require that such a permit be obtained.
The documents which are listed in this Article and to be submitted by the foreign legal entity and the foreign individual shall be notarized in the country in which they have been issued and legalized, as applicable, unless otherwise specified by the international treaties ratified by the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine.

In case the documents listed in this Article are written in a foreign language, they shall be supplemented with a notarized translation into Ukrainian.

The NBU shall approve the acquisition or increase of the qualifying holding by a foreign legal entity and individual provided that:

1) country where the foreign entity has been registered (has permanent residence) adequately complies with the international anti-money laundering and anti-terrorism financing standards;

2) banking supervision in the country where the foreign entity has been registered (has permanent residence) adheres to the Core Principles of Banking Supervision of the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision based on assessments made by the relevant international authorities.

3) paragraph 3 of the first part of Article 34 excluded

The NBU shall have the right to prohibit a legal entity or an individual from acquiring or increasing a qualifying holding in a bank in the event:

1) incomplete set of documents has been submitted, or the documents provide inadequate information, or do not meet the requirements of the Ukrainian laws in effect or NBU regulations;

2) business reputation of the entity, for the legal entity also that of its executive board and/or supervisory council members, entities that have a qualifying holding in it and all entities through which indirect ownership and/or control of the qualifying holding in the bank are likely to be executed does not meet the impeccability requirements set by the NBU;

3) financial standing of the legal entity and/or the property status of the individual and all other persons through which indirect ownership on the qualifying holding in the bank is likely to be executed does not meet the requirements set by the NBU;

4) entity has no own funds to acquire or increase the qualifying holding in a bank;

An acquisition or increase in a qualifying holding in a bank without the NBU’s approval shall be inadmissible, except for cases specified in NBU regulations when approval of the acquisition or increase is allowed ex post facto. In cases specified by the NBU, an entity/individual shall address the NBU requesting the ex post facto approval of acquisition or increase in a qualifying holding in a bank within the terms and in accordance with the procedure set by the NBU. To obtain an ex post facto approval of acquisition or increase in a qualifying holding in a bank an entity/individual shall submit documents listed in this Article as required from the entities/individuals intending to acquire or increase a qualifying holding in a bank. Pending the decision on approval, the NBU may suspend such entity/individual from exercise of the voting rights deriving from respective shares. The NBU has the right to deny an ex post facto approval of acquisition or increase in a qualifying holding in a bank on grounds defined in part fifteen of this Article.
A legal entity that has a qualifying holding in a bank shall be required to notify, as applicable, the NBU of all changes to its pattern of ownership and also to furnish it with information about the business reputation of its newly appointed managers within a month of the date on which the said changes occur.

An individual that has a qualifying holding in a bank shall be required to notify, as applicable, the NBU of all changes to the information it is required to furnish under this Article.

The NBU shall have the right to establish whether there is a significant or decisive influence on the management or activities of the legal entity.

Article 35. Capital Adequacy Ratio

The bank and each owner of a qualifying holding in the bank shall maintain the regulatory capital adequacy ratio at a level established by the NBU.

The NBU has the right to set a minimum ratio of the core capital to the total assets.

The NBU also has the right to set a minimum ratio of the regulatory capital to the total liabilities of the bank.

The NBU, taking into account the needs to ensure stability of the banking system as well as compliance with the internationally accepted principles and standards, may determine the minimum size of the regulatory capital of the bank, minimum value and calculation procedure for the regulatory capital adequacy ratio, the ratio of the regulatory capital to the total assets and the ratio of the regulatory capital to liabilities of the bank.

The bank shall submit to the NBU the action plan for recovery of the regulatory capital level, should the level have decreased to the minimum determined by the NBU. The action plan shall be submitted by the bank during 10 days after the decrease of the regulatory capital level is discovered and determine the procedure and deadlines of the measures to be taken.

The bank shall be prohibited from paying dividends or distributing capital in any other way, if such payments or distributions result in a violation of the regulatory capital adequacy ratio and/or core capital adequacy ratio.

The bank is entitled to pay dividends once a year on the basis of the calendar year results at the expense of the reporting year profits that remain available for the bank. The bank shall pay the dividends in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the bank charter.

Article 36. Reserves and Other Funds of the Bank

Banks shall form a reserve fund to cover possible unforeseen losses in all asset items and off-balance sheet liabilities.

The allocations to the reserve fund shall not be less than 5% of the bank’s profit until the reserve fund reaches 25% of the bank’s regulatory capital.

Should the activity of the bank pose a threat to interests of depositors and other creditors of the bank, the NBU has the right to require an increase in reserves and annual contributions thereto.

In the course of its supervisory activities, the NBU may identify individuals and legal entities specified in paragraphs 1-9 of part 1 of this Article as the bank’s related parties, provided they have characteristics defined by the NBU regulations and taking into account the nature of the relations, transactions and availability of other relations with the bank. The NBU shall notify the relevant bank of such decision no later than the next business day. This being the case, the person shall be considered the bank’s related party, unless the bank proves otherwise within 15 business days after the receipt of the notification from the NBU about identifying the person as a related party.

Following the procedure prescribed by the law, the person, identified by the decision of the NBU as the bank’s related party, or the bank itself may challenge the NBU’s decision on identifying the person to be the bank’s related party, and in case of holding such person liable in accordance with the law - to challenge the grounds for such NBU decision on identifying the person to be the bank’s related party.

The agreements entered into with the related parties of the bank may not provide for conditions other than current market conditions.

The agreements between a bank and its related parties, should they contain conditions other than current market conditions, shall be declared void from the date of agreement.

The following conditions shall not be deemed current market conditions:

1) acceptance of collateral that is of a lower value than that required from other clients;

2) purchase of low-quality property or property at a higher price from a related party;

3) investment in securities of a related party that the bank would not make in securities of other party;

4) payment for goods or services from a related party at a price higher than usual, or under the circumstances when the same goods or services would never be procured from other party;

5) sale to a bank’s related party of the property that is of a lower value than the property which would have been received by the bank from the sale of such property to another person;

6) accrual of the lower than usual interest rates and commission fees for services provided to the related parties by the bank;

7) accrual of the bigger than usual interests on deposits, raised by the banks from the related parties.
It is prohibited for a bank to extend loans to any person with the purpose of repaying obligations of this person to the bank’s related party; acquiring assets of the bank’s related party with the exception of the products manufactured by the latter; acquiring the securities, placed or underwritten by the bank’s related party.

The NBU shall control the bank transactions with the bank’s related parties.

The NBU shall have the right to introduce restrictions for the bank transactions with the bank’s related parties.

Article 53. Ensuring Competition within the Banking System

It is prohibited for banks to enter into the agreements in order to limit competition and monopolize crediting terms, other banking services, and establishment of the interest rates and commission fees.

It is prohibited for a bank to set the interest rates and commission fees lower than the cost of services in this bank.

It is prohibited for a bank to take any other actions for introduction of the unfair competition to its practice.

Instances of the unfair competition in rendering any banking services or conducting operations by a bank shall be the grounds for prohibiting this bank from further providing such services or performing operations.

Article 54. Credibility of Advertising

Banks are prohibited from distributing any form of advertising that contains untrue information about their activity in the area of banking services.

The NBU has the right to apply coercive actions to the banks and other persons violating the requirements of this Article.

Chapter 9. BANK RELATIONS WITH CLIENTS

Article 55. Regulation of the Bank Relations with Clients

The relations between a bank and its clients are regulated by the laws of Ukraine, NBU regulations and agreements (contracts) between the clients and the bank.

A bank shall make every effort to avoid conflicts of interest of the bank employees and clients, and conflicts of interest of the bank clients.

The banks are prohibited from demanding that clients acquire any product or service from the bank or from a bank’s affiliate or related party as a mandatory condition to render banking services.

The banks are prohibited from changing unilaterally the terms and conditions of the agreements (contracts) concluded with their clients, in particular to increase the interest rate under the loan agreements or decrease it under the deposit agreements (except the demand deposits), excepted the cases envisaged by law.

A bank acting as a proxy, agent or other representative/intermediary may take funds of individuals on behalf of the third parties (including nonbank financial institutions), only after the individuals are informed in writing that such funds will not be considered a bank deposit and will not be guaranteed under the Law of Ukraine On Households Deposit Guarantee System.

Article 56. Right of Clients to Information

A client shall be entitled to have access to the information on bank’s activities. The banks shall furnish client with the following information upon request:

4) the price of banking services;
5) other information and consultations pertaining to rendering the banking services;
6) data on the number of bank shares (stakes) owned by the executive body members of the bank and, on a scale determined by the NBU, on the persons whose share within the bank authorized capital exceeds 5%.

Bank shall have a web-site and post the information required by the law, the NBU regulations and the regulations of the National Securities and Stock Market Commission. Bank shall ensure the accuracy and relevance of the information posted on the web-site.

Article 57. Insurance of Households’ Deposits

Household deposits shall be guaranteed in the order, and to the extent, stipulated by the Ukrainian legislation.

The deposits of individuals in the State Savings Bank shall be guaranteed by the state.

Article 58. Bank’s Responsibility for its Obligations

A bank shall be liable for its obligations with all its assets in accordance with the laws of Ukraine.

A bank shall not be liable for the failure to fulfill its obligations, or the failure to fulfill its obligations in due time, if the NBU has decided to impose limitations on bank’s activities, or an authorized government body has stopped transactions with the bank’s accounts, or seized the bank’s own funds.

The bank participants shall be liable for the bank’s obligations in accordance with the laws of Ukraine and the charter of the bank.

Qualifying shareholders in a bank shall be obliged to take timely measures to prevent the bank’s insolvency.

The bank’s related party shall bear civil, administrative and criminal responsibility for violating the requirements of the law, including the NBU regulations, conducting risky operations that threaten the interests of depositors or other creditors of the bank and for bringing the bank to insolvency.
The bank’s related party, the acts or omissions of which resulted in damaging the bank through its fault, shall be liable with its property. If the bank’s related party caused damage to the bank through its acts or omissions while another bank’s related party received the property benefit directly or indirectly as a result of those acts or omissions, such parties shall be jointly liable for the damage caused to the bank.

Article 59. Attachment, Seizure and Suspension of Accounts

Property and other funds of a bank, placed in its accounts, as well as funds and other valuables of legal entities and individuals, placed with the bank, may be attached (seized) only upon the decision of state enforcement agent, private enforcement agent or court decision on seizure or attachment according to the procedure established by law. The property and funds may be released from the attachment by a decision of state enforcement agent, private enforcement agent or by a court decision.

The suspension of debit operations of a bank on its accounts as well as debit operations on accounts of legal entities and individuals may take place only in the case of seizing in accordance with Part 1 of this Article except the other cases envisaged by a contract, the Law of Ukraine On Prevention and Counteraction to Legalization (Laundering) of the Proceeds from Crime, Terrorism Financing and Financing Proliferation of Weapons of Mass Destruction, other laws and/or terms of encumbrance of the ownership rights to cash in bank account and/or correspondent account. The suspension of debit operations shall be effected within the amount of the funds attached except for the cases when the attachment is imposed without setting such an amount or otherwise provided by a contract, law or terms of such encumbrance.

Property or funds of a bank, as well as seized funds or other valuables of legal entities or individuals in a bank, shall be placed under the management (transferred to the accounts) of the National Agency for Identification, Recovery and Management of Assets Derived from Corruption and Other Crimes within one business day since the bank receives from the National Agency a claim and copies of a prosecutor’s request and decision of examining magistrate, court decision on asset seizure.

It is prohibited to attach the correspondent accounts of the bank.

The NBU shall charge the correspondent accounts of a bank at the request of the Household Deposit Guarantee Fund only in instances stipulated by the Law of Ukraine On Households Deposit Guarantee System.

Chapter 10. Banking Secrecy and Confidentiality of Information

Article 60. Banking Secrecy

The information on activities and financial position of a client, which has become known to the bank in the course of servicing the client and maintaining relations with the client or to third parties through rendering services to the bank shall be the banking secrecy.

Particularly, banking secrecy comprises:

According to the requirements set out in regulatory documents of the NBU, the bank’s curator shall have the right to obtain from depositors and other bank’s creditors the information necessary for the control over the status of liabilities fulfilment by the bank.
In the course of banking supervision, the NBU may use services of other institutions under separate agreements.

In case the banking license is revoked, the NBU informs thereof the relevant bodies of other countries, where this bank has had branches or correspondent and other accounts.

The NBU may carry out the banking supervision in the form of on-site inspections and off-site supervision.

In the course of off-site supervision the NBU is entitled to demand in writing copies of documents of any bank as well as written explanations regarding its activities.

The bank in question shall furnish the NBU at the written request thereof with the suitable information and copies of the documents.

When considering application of enforcement measures to a bank, the NBU may invite the Board Chairperson or the Council Chairperson of the bank to provide explanations.

In the course of supervision over the institutions, which carry out banking activity in other countries, the NBU shall co-operate with the relevant bodies of those countries. Notifications sent by the relevant bodies of other countries, may only be used for the following purposes:

- to check a license of an institution for carrying out activity;
- to check the right for carrying out the banking activity.

when exercising its supervision function the NBU shall cooperate with other authorities regulating the markets of financial services in Ukraine as well as with the respective authorities of other countries engaged in the supervision. The cooperation shall take place on the basis of concluded agreements, memorandums or in other forms.

Article 67. Credit Register

The NBU, in accordance with this Law and NBU regulations, shall establish and maintain the Credit Register to promote financial stability, provide banking supervision, and manage banks' credit risk as part of realization of the government policy on the national security of Ukraine in the economic area.

A bank shall provide to the Credit Register information about lending operations performed by the bank with respect to a borrower, which are specified in Article 49 part one herein, if a debt amount (principle and interest) on such lending operations equals or exceeds 100 minimum wages (or the equivalent of this amount in the foreign currency according to the official rate established by the NBU on the first business day of the month following the reporting one). The list of information to be provided to the Credit Register by the Deposit Guarantee Fund directly or by a DGF's authorized person in the event of delegating Fund's powers to the said person may be limited by separate regulations of the DGF upon the NBU's approval.

The procedure for providing/removing information to/from the Credit Register shall be defined by the National Bank of Ukraine.

Banks and the DGF directly or by a DGF's authorized person in the event of delegating DGF's powers to the said person shall be obliged to provide information defined herein to the Credit Register as of the first day of the month following the reporting one. Information shall be provided to the Credit Register not later than on the eleventh day of the month following the reporting one. Information to be provided to the Credit Register by banks and by the Deposit Guarantee Fund or a Fund's authorized person in the event of delegating Fund's powers to the said person, including information identifying the borrower, shall be processed with the aim of facilitating financial stability, carrying out banking supervision, and ensuring credit risk assessment by banks in order to protect interests of banks' depositors and other creditors in terms of realization of the government policy on the national security of Ukraine in the economic area.

When carrying out a lending operation and concluding a relevant agreement the bank shall be obliged to obtain the consent of the individual borrower to provide information to the Credit Register. A lack of such consent from the individual borrower will result in a refusal by the bank to conclude the agreement and carry out the lending operation. Banks shall provide information to the Credit Register without the need to obtain the consent of the corporate borrower, having inform the corporate borrower about this. Information about other related parties of the borrower, data about which the bank provides to the Credit Register pursuant to the part three, paragraph 5 of this Article, shall be transferred within the need to obtain the consent of such parties, and the borrower shall inform these parties about the transfer of data on them to the Credit Register. The borrower has the right to receive, on a free-of-charge basis, information about data on other related party of the borrower, which were transferred to the Credit Register by the bank pursuant to part three of this Article.

The borrower and other entities whereon information is stored in the Credit Register (hereinafter in this Article – the applicant) have the right to access to the data on them and to the data on requests for obtaining such data on them pursuant to the procedure prescribed by the data protection laws and NBU regulations. The NBU shall be obliged, within five business days of the day the NBU receives the applicant's request, to provide the applicant with information from the Credit Register on the free-of-charge basis or to inform about a lack of information relating thereto in the Credit Register pursuant to the procedure prescribed by NBU regulations.

In the event that the applicant does not agree with the information relating thereto in the Credit Register, the applicant has the right to submit a request to the NBU concerning correction or removal of the information from the Credit Register. In case the NBU receives the applicant's request concerning correction or removal of the information related thereto from the Credit Register, the NBU shall mark accordingly the information about the borrower's lending operation for the period of information verification and, within five business days of the day it receives the request, apply to the bank that provided information to the Credit Register in order to ascertain the information, or to the Deposit Guarantee Fund or to a Fund's authorized person in the event of delegating Fund's powers to the said person, in the event that the information was provided by the bank with respect to which the NBU made a decision on declaring it insolvent or on revoking of banking license and liquidation.

The bank or the DGF or a DGF's authorized person in the event of delegating Fund's powers to the said person shall be obliged, within 15 business days of the day of NBU's request, to transfer the verified information to the Credit Register or provide a substantiated refusal to make changes in the Credit Register. The NBU shall remain the information unchanged and lift the mark in case the bank, the Deposit Guarantee Fund, or a Fund's authorized person in the event of delegating Fund's powers to the said person confirms the information denied. In this case, the applicant, pursuant to the procedure set forth by the NBU, has the right to include information concerning thereto in the Credit Register, in the amount not exceeding 100 words, with respect to the information being denied, and the NBU shall be obliged to include this commentaries in the information concerning the applicant.

The NBU, not later than on the 21st business day of the day the request is received shall be obliged to inform the applicant about the update of the relevant information in the Credit Register and provide an extract from the Credit Register, which confirms the amendments. Notification shall be given to the applicant in writing in case the applicant's request foresees no other form of notification.

In case the bank or the DGF or a DGF's authorized person in the event of delegating DGF's powers to the said person, which gave information to the Credit Register, provides the substantiated refusal to make changes concerning the applicant in the Credit Register, the NBU shall furnish the applicant with a copy of this substantiated refusal. In case the bank, the DGF, or a DGF's authorized person in the event of delegating DGF's powers to the said person failed to provide a response within the period set forth in this Article, the NBU shall remove or change the information denied by the applicant and inform the applicant about failure to provide the response. The applicant has the right to appeal to the court against act or omission of the bank, the DGF, or a DGF's authorized person in the event of delegating DGF's powers to the said person.

The NBU, pursuant to the procedure set by it, shall provide the banks with access to information stored in the Credit Register about lending operations of the borrower whose total debt to one bank (principal and interest), according to Credit Register data, is not less than 100 minimum monthly wages (or the equivalent in the foreign currency at the official NBU rate set at the first business day of the month following the reporting one). Such information about the borrowers (and/or their related parties) shall be provided to the bank exclusively in case they are the borrowers (and/or related parties) of this bank, or there are documents that prove entity's application concerning the intention to perform an asset-side operation with the bank, and include the following:

1) data identifying the borrower including

   delay in days
   borrower class
   borrower's comments on the information thereto in the Credit Register, with which the borrower disagree (is available)
3) whether a borrower belongs to the bank’s related parties

4) information about collateral for obligations under the lending operation, including suretyship (date of concluding the agreement on collateral for obligations under lending transaction; type of collateral)

5) other information about the corporate borrower including:

- type of borrower's economic activity; the period for which the economic activity was defined
- borrower’s membership in a group of legal entities under common control (defined pursuant to the laws); a list of legal entities that are members of the group of legal entities under common control, which shall be analyzed by the bank to define credit exposure; the identification code in the Single state register of legal entities, private entrepreneurs and non-governmental organizations of every legal entity that is a member of the group of legal entities under common control; borrower's position in the group (a parent company or a member); a class of the group defined based on consolidated/combined financial statements
- borrower’s membership in a group of related counterparties bearing a common economic risk (defined pursuant to the laws); a list of legal entities that are members of the group of related counterparties bearing the common economic risk; the identification code in the Single state register of legal entities, private entrepreneurs, and non-governmental organizations of every legal entity that is a member of the group of related counterparties bearing a common economic risk
- data identifying the owners holding 10% and more of the authorized capital of a legal entity (for individual owners – full name, taxpayer's ID number or passport number and series/number of the ID card (for taxpayers who due to their religious believes refuse to have taxpayer’s ID number and have the relevant stamp in their passport, place of registration; for corporate owners – the identification code in the Single state register of legal entities, private entrepreneurs, and non-governmental organizations)
- the fact of carrying out an audit of borrower's financial statements or of consolidated/combined financial statements of the group that includes the borrower.

The NBU shall use the information from the Credit Register to analyze the standing of the financial system with the aim of facilitating financial stability according to NBU regulations, in particular, in compliance with the requirement for limitations on the use of information identifying the borrower or other entities.

The bank shall obtain from the Credit Register information nontransferable to third parties. The NBU has no right to transfer information from the Credit Register to third parties, except in cases specified herein.

The use of information from the Credit Register by banks and the NBU for the purposes other than those provided for by the laws is prohibited.

The Credit Register’s information is stored for an unlimited term, aside from information about lending operations liabilities on which were met in full or terminated. The information about lending operations, liabilities on which were met in full or terminated, shall be removed from the Credit Register by the NBU according to the procedure set by it within 30 calendar days after receiving information from the bank about loan repayment or termination of its liabilities.

The NBU shall provide the banks with access to real-time data in the Credit Register on a free-of-charge basis.

Chapter 13. ACCOUNTING, REPORTING AND AUDITING

Article 68. General Principles of Accounting and Reporting in the Banks
The banks shall organize accounting in accordance with the internal accounting policy, developed on the basis of the rules and regulations established by the NBU in accordance with the International Accounting Standards.

The accounting shall ensure a timely and full reflection of all the banking operations and provide true information to users on the status of assets and liabilities, financial performance and changes therein.

The financial statements of every bank shall show the results of its activity for the reporting period.

Article 69. Reporting of Banks

Any bank is obliged to submit to the NBU its financial statements and statistical reporting on its activity, operations, liquidity, solvency, profitability as well as the information of its affiliates with the aim to assess the bank’s financial standing.

The NBU has the right to request a bank/banking group to submit the consolidated and sub-consolidated reporting.

The NBU shall prescribe the following for the banks/banking groups:

1) reporting forms and methodology for their compilation;

2) frequency and time frame for submission of the reports;

3) structure of explanatory notes;

4) minimum disclosure requirements and terms;

5) methods of compilation of the consolidated and sub-consolidated reporting.

In certain cases the NBU is entitled to require the banks and banking groups to submit ad hoc and preliminary reporting.

Each owner of the qualifying holding in the bank, who is a legal entity, shall submit an annual report to the NBU within the defined term on its activity. The report shall contain the following information:

1) types of activity carried out by the legal entity;

2) information on the economic entities, in which this legal entity's participation exceeds 10 percent, in particular: the name and address of the legal entity, size of the stake (share) owned by this person, and types of activity;

3) balance sheet and income statement of that entity as at the end of the last fiscal year audited by external auditor (audit firm).

The NBU has the right to request the submission of other periodical reports or information from the bank’s qualifying holding owner in order to supervise the security and stability of the bank’s financial position and to ensure adherence to the provisions of this Law.

The fiscal year of any bank is a calendar year beginning on January 1st.

Any bank shall, during a month following the reporting period, publish on the bank’s web site as well as distribute at the bank’s premises accessible for customers, including the depositors, the quarterly balance sheet and financial performance report together with the explanatory notes thereto, the list whereof is determined by the NBU.

The bank shall publish the auditor’s report and audited thereby annual financial reports and annual consolidated financial reports containing:

1) balance sheet;
2) profit and loss statement;
3) statement of cash flows;
4) statement of changes in equity;
5) notes to the reports, the list whereof is determined by the NBU.

Any bank shall, before 30 April of the year following the reporting one, publish the annual financial reporting and annual consolidated financial reporting together with the auditor’s report as well as other information, in the scale defined by the NBU, about the bank’s qualifying holding owners in periodicals and/or as separate prints or else in the Internet.

The bank shall, on its own initiative or under the requisition of the NBU, during one month after the publication, negate the unreliable financial reporting (annual financial reports and/or annual consolidated financial reports) published, in the same way as it has been distributed.

The chairperson of the board and accountant-general of the bank shall be liable in accordance with the laws of Ukraine for publication of the corrupt (incomplete) financial reporting and violation of the procedure of denial of such reports.

The banking group responsible person shall disclose the auditor’s conclusion and the annual consolidated reporting of the banking group audited by an audit firm no later than on 1 June of the year following the reporting one. The composition of the reporting and disclosure procedure according to the procedure shall be determined by the NBU based on the requirements of the part nine of this Article.

Article 70. External Audit of Banks

Each bank shall ensure the annual audit of financial statements, consolidated financial statements and other information on financial and economic activities by the auditor (audit firm) in accordance with the laws of Ukraine, including the NBU regulations.

Audit of banks may be effected by an audit firm entered in the section of the Register of Auditors and Audit Companies maintained pursuant to the law, in the part related to audit companies entitled to carry out financial audit of public interest entities.

Both the bank and auditor shall submit to the NBU at its request the explanations, including in writing, concerning the external audit of the bank.

The NBU has the right to request the bank to broaden the audit scope according to the procedure and extent determined by NBU regulations.

Any bank is entitled to conclude agreements on audit of the annual financial reporting and consolidated financial reporting with the same auditor, but not more than seven consecutive years.
The bank shall, according to the procedure and requirements determined by the NBU regulations, submit to the NBU the auditor’s report and other documents related to the audit.

The auditor (audit firm) shall notify the NBU of material distortions in financial statements indicators, violations and operational deficiencies detected during the audit and provision of audit services, which could result in the bank insolvency, including of material losses of the bank regulatory capital.

The bank’s managers shall provide conditions for the external audit of the bank in compliance with the requirements of the laws of Ukraine and, at the auditor’s request, submit the reports on inspections done by the NBU as well as those of the external and internal audit of the bank.

The auditor shall, at the request of the NBU, submit to the latter and authorized persons thereof the auditor’s working documents related to the bank audit according to the procedure established by the NBU regulations.

The auditor shall not be responsible for disclosure of information to the NBU in the cases defined in this Article.

Chapter 14. BANK INSPECTIONS

Article 71. Bank Inspections

Each bank shall be a subject to inspections by the persons authorized by the NBU.

The inspections shall be performed with the purpose of identifying the level of safety and stability of the bank’s operations, reliability of the bank’s reporting and compliance with the Ukrainian laws on banks and banking and the NBU regulations.

Any inspection shall be performed in accordance with the schedule, approved by the NBU. The scheduled inspection shall be conducted not more than once a year. The NBU shall inform the bank of conducting the scheduled inspection not later than in ten days prior to its beginning.

The banks shall ensure appropriate conditions for the bank inspection and free access to all premises of the bank in working hours to the persons authorized by the NBU to inspect the bank.

The bank managers and employees shall free of charge open access to the automated system of bank transactions to the authorized NBU personnel, as well as provide them with information, documents and written explanations on bank’s activities and, should any violation of the legislation of Ukraine on banks and banking, including the NBU regulations, have been detected, also with copies of the documents according to the procedure established by the NBU.

The NBU may take a decision to perform an unscheduled inspection of the bank, if sound grounds for doing so exist. Such a decision shall be signed by the NBU Governor or by the person, authorized by the Governor.

The authorized by the NBU persons are entitled to receive from the bank information, documents and copies thereof, written explanations on bank activity issues as well as to withdraw copies of the documents testifying to violations of the laws of Ukraine, including the NBU regulations.

Inspection results may not be disclosed to third parties, except for the Household Deposit Guarantee Fund, if such reports contain no information about breaches of the law.

In the course of inspections of banks, the persons authorized by the NBU shall be entitled to inspect any reporting of any affiliate of the bank and any congenerous person thereof with regard to their relationships with the bank for the purpose of determining the effect of such relationship on the bank position. For inspection purposes, the affiliates and congenerous persons of the bank shall facilitate the NBU efforts in line with this Article provisions and in the same manner as applied to the banks.

The NBU shall have the right to engage staff of the Deposit Guarantee Fund for inspections of a problem bank.

Article 72. Examinations and Inspections of Persons Subject to the NBU Supervision

The NBU has the right to inspect the persons subject to the NBU supervision in order to check for the compliance with the legislation on banking activity. In the course of these inspections, the NBU has the right to demand any information from these persons needed for the inspection. The persons being inspected shall submit to the NBU the required information within the period of time defined by the NBU.

The owners of a qualifying holding in a bank and banking group participants shall belong to the persons subject to inspections of the NBU.

A person (entity) in respect of which there is information that he/she/it has conducted or conducts banking activity without a license may also be subject to the NBU inspection.

Article 73. Enforcement Measures

In case a bank or other persons (entities), whose activities the NBU is entitled to inspect under this Law, violate Ukrainian banking and currency laws, legislation on prevention and counteraction to legalization (laundering) of the proceeds from crime, terrorism financing and financing weapons of mass destruction, under NBU’s regulations or its requirements set forth under Article 66 of the Law, or perform activities that pose threats to the interests of depositors or other creditors, or if a bank or its qualifying shareholders are subjected by intergovernmental unions or international institutions to sanctions which pose a threat to the depositors or other creditors of the bank and/or banking system stability, the NBU shall have the right to apply the following corrective actions, which are commensurate with the extent of the violation or the seriousness of the threats posed:

1) issue a written warning;

2) call a general meeting of shareholders, a meeting of the Bank Council, and a meeting of the Bank’s Board;

3) enter into a written agreement with the bank under which the bank, or an entity specified in the agreement, undertakes to take corrective action, improve the financial health of the bank, enhance the efficiency, and/or adequacy, of the bank’s risk management processes;

4) suspend payment of dividends or the distribution of the capital in any other form;

5) impose increased individual economic ratios for the bank in question;

6) increase the loan loss provisions and allowances for other assets;

7) limitation, termination or suspension of some transactions performed by the bank, including transactions with the bank’s related parties;

8) impose a ban on granting unsecured loans;
9) impose fines on:

second indent of paragraph 9 of the first part of Article 73 excluded bank under the regulations approved by the NBU Board but only in an amount not more than one percent of the registered authorized capital; bank that failed to fulfill the requirement of the bank curator in the amount from two to three thousand of non-taxable minimum household incomes;

qualifying holding owners of the bank for non-fulfilment of the obligations on provision of the required financial support to the bank under measures taken to bring a problem bank in compliance with the law in a amount from five to ten thousand of non-taxable minimum household incomes;

a person that acquired or increased the qualifying holding in a bank, should they have violated the requirements of Article 34 hereof regarding purchase or increase of the qualifying holding in the bank, in an amount of up to 10 percent of:

the nominal value of the purchased shares (stakes) of the bank, if the person acquired or increased direct qualifying holding in a bank;

nominal value of shares (stakes) owned by shareholder (participant) of the bank through which the person acquired or increased the qualifying holding in the bank, if the person acquired or increased the indirect qualifying holding in the bank.

The fine for violation of the procedure for acquisition or increase of the qualifying holding in the bank shall be imposed on the person, which acquired or increased the qualifying holding in the bank or to any person in the bank ownership structure through which such person acquired or increased the qualifying holding in the bank.

10) temporary prohibition for the qualifying holding owner to use of his/her/its voting rights until elimination of the violation (provisional prohibition of the use of voting rights);

11) suspend temporarily a bank’s official from his/her office until they take corrective action;

12) declare the bank problem or insolvent;

13) revoke the banking license and liquidate the bank.

Provisional prohibition of the use of voting rights shall be applied through banning the use of the voting rights by:

direct qualifying holding owner – corresponding to the bank’s shares (stakes) belonging to the qualifying holder or, provided the procedure for acquiring or increasing the qualifying holding in the bank was violated, to the bank’s shares (stakes) purchased by the qualifying shareholder;

indirect qualifying holding owner – corresponding to the shares (stakes) belonging to the bank’s shareholder (participant) through whom the person acquired or increased the qualifying holding in the bank.

The provisional prohibition of the use of voting rights may be applied in addition to other measures provided for by part one hereof.
If the provisional prohibition of the use of voting rights is applied, the NBU shall appoint an authorized representative to whom voting rights of relative shares (stakes) and the right to engage in any way in bank management shall be transferred.

The NBU is not entitled to appoint as such an authorized person any owner of a qualifying holding in the bank.

The authorized person shall, in the process of the voting, act in the interests of the competent and prudential management of the bank. The authorized person shall, during the whole period of his/her status validity, meet the requirements set by this Law and NBU regulations regarding the irreproachable business reputation.

The person suspended from office or temporarily prohibited to use the voting rights of the purchased shares (stakes) on the basis of the NBU order, may be reinstated in office or in the voting rights under purchased shares (stakes) only on the basis of the NBU decision.

In case of violation of the requirements of this Law, NBU regulations, by the banking group, its responsible person or other banking group participants, their engagement in risky activities menacing bank depositors’ interests, existence of the banking group structure that renders the consolidated supervision impossible, the NBU is entitled to apply the enforcement measures, adequate for the violation, prescribed by the first part of this Article or any of the listed below:

1) prescription of higher economic ratios, limits and restrictions with regard to some types of operations for the banking group;

2) prohibition to conduct transactions the parties whereof are the bank and other banking group participants;

3) request to the bank to alienate the shares of participation in the authorized capital of subsidiaries, associate companies being the banking group members, to terminate the agreements on the basis whereof, in case of formal ownership absence, the decisive influence is exerted on the management and/or activities of these persons.

In case of violation of the requirements of this Law, NBU regulations by the non-banking financial institutions being the banking group members, the NBU is entitled to address the authorities overseeing such persons’ activities with the request on application of adequate enforcement measures to these persons.

Article 74. Procedure for enforcement measures

The procedure for applying the enforcement measures specified in Article 73 hereof shall be set by the NBU regulations.

The amounts of financial sanctions that are imposed on banks and other legal entities subject to supervision by the NBU shall be established by Ukrainian laws and NBU regulations.

Enforcement measures under Article 73 hereof may be applied by the NBU to banks, foreign bank branches or individuals within six months from the date of detection of the violation, but no later than three years from the date of its commitment.

Enforcement measures for violation of the legislation on prevention and counteraction to legalization (laundering) of the proceeds from crime, terrorism financing and financing of weapons of mass destruction may be applied by the NBU to banks and foreign banks’ branches within six months from the date of detection of the violation, but no later than three years from the date of its commitment.
Decision of the NBU to apply an enforcement measure in a form of a fine is an enforcement document and shall enter into force from the date of its approval. In the event of any failure to carry out such decision, the NBU shall register it with the Single Public Register of Enforcement Documents and submit to the enforcement authorities for enforcement in accordance with the law.

The NBU shall resume supervising the bank on the day it receives a notification from the Deposit Guarantee Fund on the termination of powers of the supervisor of the Deposit Guarantee Fund due to bringing the bank's activities in compliance with banking laws of Ukraine concerning compliance with capital and liquidity ratios.

Chapter 16.
BANK LIQUIDATION

Article 77. Grounds for Revoking the Banking License and Liquidating the Bank

A bank may be liquidated:

1) by a decision of its owners;

2) if the NBU revokes the license on its initiative, or at the request of the Deposit Guarantee Fund.

The NBU has the right to revoke the banking license if:

1) it has established that documents submitted by the bank to obtain a banking license contained false or misleading information;

2) a bank has not effected any banking transaction within a year since the day it was issued a license;

3) repeated breach by a bank of the AML/CFT and the proliferation of weapons of mass destruction laws is detected.

The NBU shall make a decision to revoke the banking license and liquidate the bank, at the request of the Deposit Guarantee Fund, within five days from the day of receipt of the request.

The order of revoking the banking license of the bank that is being liquidated by a decision of its owners shall be determined in the NBU regulations.

The NBU shall, not later than the day following the day it made a decision to revoke the banking license and liquidate the bank, shall notify the bank and the Deposit Guarantee Fund of its decision.

The Deposit Guarantee Fund, on the day it received the NBU' decision to liquidate a bank, acquires the right of the bank’s liquidator, and commences the procedure of its liquidation pursuant to the Law of Ukraine On Household Deposit Guarantee System.

The liquidation of a bank shall be deemed completed, and the bank shall be deemed liquidated, from the day a relevant entry was made into the Uniform State Register of Legal Entities and Individual Entrepreneurs.

The NBU shall make an entry to the State Register of Banks that a bank has been liquidated on the basis of a decision made by the Deposit Guarantee Fund regarding the approval of a liquidation balance and the liquidator’s report.

Article 78. Shareholders Voluntary Bank Liquidation
Liquidation of bank by a decision of its owners shall be effected in accordance with the procedure provided in the laws on liquidation of entities unless the NBU has found reasons to declare the bank a problem or insolvent bank after receipt of the owners decision on liquidation of banks.

Owners of the bank shall have the right to start liquidation procedure by the decision of General Meeting of Shareholders only after the NBU has agreed upon it and the banking license has been revoked.

If the bank under voluntary liquidation has been declared by the NBU a problem bank or an insolvent bank, the NBU and the Deposit Guarantee Fund shall apply to the bank measures stipulated by this Law and the Law of Ukraine On Household Deposit Guarantee System.

SECTION VI.
CHALLENGING THE NATIONAL BANK OF UKRAINE DECISIONS

Article 79. Challenging the NBU Decisions

A bank or other persons under the NBU supervision have the right, according to the procedure specified by the law, to challenge in a court the decisions, actions or omissions (inactivity) of the NBU or its employees.

Section VII. FINAL PROVISIONS

1. The present Law shall come into effect from the date of its publication.

The NBU shall have the right to set transitional terms for fulfillment of the provisions provided for by this Law, if this allows banks to comply with the requirements of this Law, these terms shall not exceed, however, the general deadlines envisaged by the present Law requirements.

Banks established during the period prior the effective date of this Law shall, within two years, bring their activities in compliance with this Law.

Within a year from the effective date of the present Law, the NBU shall re-issue licenses to the banks in line with the classification of operations provided for by this Law.

Provisions of the present Law shall apply to the bank establishment procedures, the granting of a license to perform bank operations initiated and not completed prior to the entry into effect of this Law.

A bank liquidation procedure initiated before the effective date of the present Law shall be completed pursuant to the rules set by this Law and the NBU regulations adopted in accordance with this Law.

2. Before legislation is brought in compliance with this Law, laws and regulations shall be applied to the extent they do not contradict this Law.

3. Within six months from the publication of this Law, the Cabinet of Ministers of Ukraine and the NBU shall:

prepare and submit to the Verkhovna Rada of Ukraine their proposals in respect of bringing laws of Ukraine in compliance with this Law;

bring their regulations in compliance with this Law;

ensure adoption of the regulations needed for the implementation of this Law;
ensure that the ministries and other central government agencies bring their regulatory documents in compliance with this Law.

4. The following documents shall be declared null and void:

paragraph 11, Section I of the Law of Ukraine On Amendments to Certain Laws of Ukraine due to Adoption of the Laws of Ukraine ‘On the State Enforcement Agency’ and ‘On the Enforcement Procedures’ No. 2056-III of 19 October 2000;

5. While the Law of Ukraine On Financial Restructuring is in effect, Article 62 hereof shall be applied taking into account that, in accordance with the Law of Ukraine On Financial Restructuring, the banks participating in the financial restructuring procedure are allowed to disclose information that includes banking secrets with regard to a debtor, its surety (property guarantor) and debtor’s related parties, without their consent, to other participants of the financial restructuring and to the bodies facilitating the financial restructuring procedure (supervisory council, secretariat, arbitration committee (arbitrator).

6. For the term of validity of the Restructuring Plans approved in accordance with the Law of Ukraine On Financial Restructuring, the NBU shall not apply enforcement measures for the failure to maintain the following ratios and limits: short-term liquidity ratio, single counterparty exposure limit, investment ratio and FX position limit, if this failure is a result of bank’s participation in accordance with the Law of Ukraine On Financial Restructuring in financial restructuring procedure.

7. While the Law of Ukraine On Financial Restructuring is in effect, the NBU shall apply to the banks sanctions for the breach of this Law provided for in Article 30 of the Law of Ukraine On Financial Restructuring in the manner prescribed thereby.

8. When restructuring debtor’s liabilities in accordance with the Law of Ukraine On Financial Restructuring, a bank may set interest rates and commission fees at the level lower than the cost of banking services in the bank.
