0 – 1. Information related to the National Bank of Ukraine as a whole

2. Methodology
2.1 Concepts and definitions	2.1.1 Concepts and definitions The monetary unit of Ukraine - Hryvnia (UAH). The National Bank of Ukraine sets the official exchange rate of hryvnia against hard currencies widely used for payments in international transactions by the National Bank of Ukraine, the currencies of EU member states and foreign currencies of the countries being main foreign trade partners of Ukraine, as well as versus other foreign currencies and special drawing rights (SDR). The official hryvnia exchange rate against foreign currencies is set without any liabilities to use it to conclude agreements in the money and FX markets by the National Bank of Ukraine, Ukrainian residents and nonresidents, and is used by the Ukrainian residents and nonresidents to account foreign currency transactions, as well as to conduct the NBU's currency operations with the State Treasury Service of Ukraine. The exchange rate of UAH against foreign currencies indicates the quantity of national currency units (hryvnia) in the units of a foreign currency. The concept and definitions of data falling under Exchange rates category comply with recommendation set forth in items 6.30-6.32 in The Special Data Dissemination Standard: Guide for Subscribers and Users (SDDS Guide) (IMF, 2013).
2.2 Scope	2.2.1 Scope Scope of the data

	The statistical data cover the official exchange rate of UAH versus foreign currencies set by the National Bank of Ukraine.
2.3 Classification/sectorization	2.3.1 Classification/sectorization The official exchange rate of UAH against foreign currencies is calculated: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•against USD, EURO and other hard currencies widely used for payments in international transactions, as well as the currencies of EU member states;</li> <li>•against hard currencies restrictedly used for payments in international transactions and not traded in the main foreign exchange markets of the world;</li> <li>•against soft currencies.</li> </ul>
2.4 Basis for recording	2.4.1 Valuation The average exchange rate of UAH against foreign currencies for a period is determined as follows: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• for monthly data – the chronological value of foreign currencies in hryvnias for a month;</li> <li>• for quarterly and annual data – arithmetical average of the month's values.</li> </ul> 2.4.2 Recording basis The source data for determining the official exchange rate of UAH against foreign currencies is the following information: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>•BLOOMBERG's BFIX quotes (weighted average spot-market exchange rate/price quotes of the currencies against the US dollar (or those of the US dollar against foreign currencies), which are calculated daily as of 3:30 p.m., Kyiv time);</li> <li>•data of the central (national) banks issuing currencies on exchange rates of foreign currencies against the US dollar (or those of the US Dollar against foreign currencies);</li> <li>•the IMF's SDR exchange rate against the US dollar (for the refined official SDR exchange rate against hryvnia);</li> <li>•the current rates of foreign currencies against the US dollar (or those of the US dollar against foreign currencies) in international FX markets, that are received through trading information systems (TIS).</li> </ul> 2.4.3 Grossing/netting procedures The National Bank of Ukraine sets the official exchange rate of hryvnia against US dollar based on all USD purchase/sale

	deals quoted on tod, tom, and spot terms between the banks and between the banks and the NBU, entered into as of the moment of official exchange rate calculation in the Ukrainian FX market on the day of setting the rate, using a two-step procedure for cutting off casual and outlying deals that differ essentially from the majority of the market deals entered within the relevant timeframe.
3. Accuracy and reliability
3.1 Source data	3.1.1 Source data collection programs Comprehensiveness of source data, which is the basis for setting the official exchange rate of UAH against foreign currencies by the National Bank of Ukraine, is ensured by the data collection software. The entire computer assisted reporting practically excludes submitting of incomplete information or delay in its submitting to the National Bank of Ukraine. 3.1.2 Source data definitions, scope, classifications, valuation, and time of recording The level of source data, the National Bank of Ukraine is based on while determining the official exchange rate of UAH against foreign currencies, is in compliance with the above-mentioned terms. 3.1.3 Source data timeliness Source data are well timed, terms of their submission meet applicable data standards.
3.2 Assessment of source data	3.2.1 Source data assessment Source data are assessed on a regular basis. The quality of source data compilation, processing and revision is monitored, all discrepancies are being monitored. When errors or discrepancies occur, necessary measures are taken to eliminate them.
3.3 Statistical techniques	3.3.1 Source data statistical techniques Data are submitted in the form of files and processed by means of software tools, which can verify the source data by means of determined codes of analytical records and their combinations. 3.3.2 Other statistical procedures

	No other statistical procedures are applied.
3.4 Data validation	3.4.1 Validation of intermediate results The data on exchange rates are verified by daily information. 3.4.2 Assessment of intermediate data The reported data are final and are not subject to revision with the exception of the refined official exchange rate of UAH against SDR which is set once a month (on the second business day of the month, as of the last business day of the previous month) based on the information about SDR exchange rate against USD set by the IMF on its last business day of the previous month. 3.4.3 Assessment of discrepancies and other problems in statistical outputs The statistical series are based on daily data and are compiled daily, monthly, and annually.
3.5 Revision studies	3.5.1 Revision studies and analyses Data on the official exchange rate of the UAH against foreign currencies are not subject to revision.
