

International events on exchange of experience to be held under the NBU's initiative in 2022

NO	Period	Event name	Event details
1	January–February Kyiv, Ukraine	Forum (open event) Third Annual Forum on Financial Inclusion	Objective: The annual forum will become a platform for presenting and discussing the most effective world practices in improving financial inclusion of the public. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • best world practices in improvement of financial inclusion, including the situation in Ukraine • state of financial inclusion in the world and in Ukraine • role of central banks in financial inclusion development • access to financial instruments: current state and plans of development • consumer rights protection and financial literacy as key elements of building financial inclusion in Ukraine. Participants: representatives of state authorities, banks, payment systems, business, experts and educators from different countries of the world, foreign central banks
2	June Kyiv, Ukraine	Expert round table The National Strategy for Financial Literacy: from Development to Implementation	Objective: The event will promote the exchange of experience with representatives from different countries on adopting a systemic approach to improving financial literacy of the public. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • need and objectives of developing national strategies for financial literacy • experience of participating countries in developing and implementing national strategies for financial literacy • specifics of monitoring and assessing the implementation effectiveness of national strategies for financial literacy development. Participants: representatives of government institutions, foreign central banks, international financial institutions, experts and educators
3	October Kyiv, Ukraine	Practical session Experience in Developing and Maintaining the Public Register of Statistical Reporting Indicators Submitted to Central Banks and National Regulators	Objective: Discussion and exchange of experience on developing and maintaining the public register of statistical reporting indicators submitted to central banks and national regulators Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • key principles and experience of developing and systematizing reporting indicators • procedure for updating and maintaining the register of indicators Participants: representatives of foreign central banks, international experts
4	October	Annual international round table	Objective:

	Kyiv, Ukraine	Strategic Development and Change Management of the Financial Sector Regulators	The round table, held for the third time, has traditionally become a platform for discussion of relevant issues on strategic development of central banks, change management, application of project and process management instruments for achieving strategic goals. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • practical aspects of strategic development and change management at the National Bank of Ukraine • experience of foreign central banks in managing changes and applying project and process management instruments for achieving strategic goals • making a strategic plan: definition, tools, exploring opportunities, case study • cases of successful transformations of a central bank/financial sector regulator Participants: representatives of central banks, foreign regulators of financial markets and international experts
5	November Kyiv, Ukraine	International round table Challenges to the Central Bank International Relations in the Post-COVID World	Objective: This international round table will become an expert platform for discussion of relevant issues on building international ties by central banks and challenges in the COVID and Post-COVID world. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • internal, external coordination and interaction • practical aspects of building and developing international relations at a modern central bank • new instruments, directions and policies of international relations Participants: representatives of foreign central banks, international organizations, technical assistance projects/programs
6	December Kyiv, Ukraine	International conference (open event) Central Bank Digital Currencies: New Horizons of Use	Objective: For the second time, the conference will provide a platform for representatives of foreign central banks, specialists and researchers from all over the world to share their experience in feasibility of introduction of central bank digital currencies (CBDC) and their place in the financial ecosystem. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • feasible models and examples of CBDC use in practice • results of practical pilot projects on issuing CBDC in different countries • aspects of CBDC influence on monetary policy and financial stability Participants: representatives of international financial institutions, foreign central banks, financial institutions (banks, fintech companies), technology companies, researchers, international mass media
7	December Kyiv, Ukraine	International round table Development of Sustainable Finance	Objective: The round table aims to discuss relevant issues on promoting sustainable finance, principles of environmental, social and corporate governance (ESG) and green bonds. Issues to be discussed: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • current environmental challenges and the ways of addressing them

			<ul style="list-style-type: none">• practical aspects of sustainable finance development and the ESG integration into the regulatory and supervisory process• development of green bond market. Participants: representatives of foreign central banks and international experts
--	--	--	---