

Business Outlook Survey of Poltava Oblast*

Q2 2022

*This survey only reflects the opinions of respondents in Poltava oblast (top managers of companies) who were polled in Q2 2022, and does not represent NBU forecasts or estimates

A survey of companies carried out in Poltava oblast in Q2 2022 showed that against the background of the war respondents expected that the output of Ukrainian goods and services would decrease significantly. Respondents also reported negative expectations for the performance of their companies over the next 12 months. Inflation expectations became higher. Depreciation expectations remained strong.

The top managers of companies said they expected that over the next 12 months:

- the output of Ukrainian goods and services would decrease significantly: the balance of expectations was (-58.3%) compared to (-10.5%) in Q1 2022 and (-48.7%) across Ukraine (Figure 1)
- prices for consumer goods and services would grow significantly: 63.9% of respondents expected the inflation rate to be higher than 20.0% compared to 58.2% across Ukraine. Respondents referred to military actions, production costs and the hryvnia exchange rate as the main inflation drivers (Figure 2)
- the domestic currency would depreciate at a fast pace: 88.9% of respondents (compared to 89.5% in the previous quarter) expected the hryvnia to weaken against the US dollar, with the figure across Ukraine being 88.9%
- the financial and economic standings of their companies would deteriorate: the balance of expectations was (-20.0%) (compared to 0.0% in Q1 2022). Across Ukraine, the balance of responses was (-17.1%) (see Table)
- total sales would decrease noticeably: the balance of responses was (-25.0%) compared to 33.3% in the previous quarter (see Table). External sales were also expected to drop: the balance of responses was (-23.5%) compared to 27.8% in Q1 2022. Overall, across Ukraine the balances of responses were (-19.0%) and (-25.0%) respectively
- investment in construction and in machinery, equipment, and tools would decrease significantly: the balances of responses were (-40.0%) and (-45.7%) respectively (compared to 0.0% and 8.6% in the previous quarter). Across Ukraine, the balances of responses were (-37.2%) and (-34.7%) respectively
- staff numbers at their companies would decrease: the balance of responses was (-19.4%) compared to 0.0% in Q1 2022. Across Ukraine, the balance of responses was (-29.0%) (Figure 4)
- purchase prices would grow more quickly (the balance of responses was 97.2%) than selling prices (the balance of responses was 72.2%) (compared to 94.7% and 63.2% respectively in Q1 2022) (Figure 6). Respondents referred to energy, raw material and supplies prices, and logistical problems as the main selling price drivers (Figure 7)
- per-unit production costs would grow at a faster pace: the balance of responses was 72.2% (compared to 47.2% in the previous quarter). At the same time, respondents expected wage costs per staff member to grow more slowly: the balance of responses was 25.0% (compared to 51.4% in Q1 2022) (Figures 6 and 4)

Respondents referred to military actions and their consequences, high energy prices and weak demand as the main drags on the ability of their companies to boost production (Figure 5).

Respondents reported higher expectations of an increase in their borrowing needs in the near future (Figure 8). 44.4% of respondents planned to take out bank loans and usually opted for domestic currency ones. Lending conditions tightened (Figure 9). Respondents referred to high interest rates, collateral requirements and uncertainty about their ability to meet debt obligations as they fall due as the main factors deterring them from taking out loans (Figure 10).

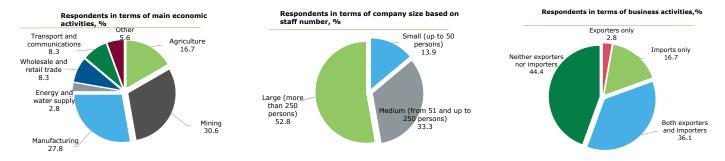

A total of 88.6% of respondents said that they had encountered no difficulties in effecting transactions with funds deposited in bank accounts (93.5% across Ukraine).

Assessments of financial and economic standings as of the time of the survey (Figure 3)
